THE COURT &

UNITED STATES DISTRICT CO" AT-IN BANKRUPTCY.

Motion for an Inj anction Granted.

Before Jut' go Blatchtord.

In the Matter of Sey your, Pearless and Sands. petition for compulacry benkruptcy having been fled on Saturday, Mr. Edwin James applied, under the for tieth section of the Bankrupt law, for an injunction t tieth section of 'Ae Bankrupt law, for an injunction to restrain one R chard J. Scrivener from selling or disposing of goods of the value of $14,000, which are alleged is the petition and affidavits to have been transferred by the firm to him when they were in a state of insolvency, and by way of fraudulent preference over the other creditors of the firm. The bills of lading had been proven, and the goods were now in the custody and control of Scrivener, in the warehouses of the Cunard Company in Jersey City.

Judge Blatchford granted the injunction.

UNITED STATES CREUIT COURT.

Important Case-Action by the Marquis del Grido, if usband of Madause Risteri. Against an American Citizen for Alleged Multicious Prosecution and False Imprisonment. An action for falleged multicious prosecution and felse imprisonment has been commenced in the United States Circuit Court for this district by the Marquis del Grillo, husband of Mr.dame Ristori, against Oliver F. Papy, who resides at West Sixtoenth street. Damages are laid at $10,000. 2.bout three months upo the defendant is $10,000. About three months upo the defendant is the present suit, as is alleged, had the Marce is arrested on a charge of insulting his (Papy's) wife. The Marquis was taken before Judge Bodge, at one of the city police courts, to answer that complaint, and the result of the matter there was that the charge was either abandoned or districted. Yesterday Mr. Papy were arrested and brought before Commissioner White, who held him to bell in the sum of $2,000 to take his trail at the case by term of the Chronit Gourt, his surelies being Mrs. Teress Papy and Mr. Jones D. Prince.

This suit at the instance of the Marquis del Orillo was triginally constanced in the Statescourts; but it was found by the Marquis' legal advisers that it could not be reached in time, as he has to go to Havana with his wife, Madana Plistort, who is soon to appear in that city for the purpose of fulfilling a professional engagement. On the ireturn court, when no doubt all the facts on both sides will be elicited. The Marquis has retained Mr. Douglas Campbell and Mr. James Geddes Day to conduct the esse on his behalf.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Important Charge to the Grand Jury-The Liquor Question-The Tenement House and the Concealed Weapons Acts Discussed.

Before Judge Russel.

The January term of this court commenced yeste any, his Honor, Judge Russel presiding. Assistant Dis-trict Attorney Hutchings will conduct the prosecution. The first bus ness in order was the empanelling of the Grand Jury. Mr. Stephen Hyatt was chosen by the coart to act as foreman.

The City Judge then charged the Grand Jury as fol-The City Judge then charged the Grand Jury as follows:—

GENTLEMEN OF THE GRAND JURY—The accountability which dev gives upon you is a great one. The relations you bear to the administration of criminal justice cannot be too highly estimated. In some instances your action upo a misdemeanor, which comprehend all criminal offene as below the degree of feiony, may be necessary to the arrangement of parties accused of those crimes. And your obligation to the community cannot be bester discharged than by attending to the particulars of the es ah which has been administered to your foreman as I to which you have all bound yoursolf to conform. Journal to take care that the guilty do not escape, and to see that the innocent do not suffer. You are to present no one who is free from offence, and you are to leave none unpresented whose conduct justly designates teem as criminals. You are to pay no attention to official station or social position. You are to yield yourselves to no undue or improper influences of any description. You are to be moreful, but resolute in meeting the responsibilities which attach to you. You can at all times if so inclined appeal to the court for ald and legal direction, and you will find it ready to answer your demands upon it. Judge Russel then proceeded to instruct the jury upon the law relating to the several grades of effences that would be presented to them, The court would desire to instruct the jury to investigate of elences against the provisions of the act of 14th of April, 1865, by which the sale of intoxicating liquors was regulated in the city of New York, known by the little of the Excese law, and to indict all offenders against that law. The valiaity of that act had been established by the highest court in the United States, and must be obeyed and its provisions enforced as long as it remained on the attaute book. The injustice of logislating on such a subject for a portion of the State, of passing moral laws which apply to only a portion of our citizens and our territory, would s passed had it open extended to the whole state; and it is unquestionable that had such been its character it would not how be resisted as it has been and it. I have felt contrained to say this much, as the Legislature which is soon to commence is entitled to have the testimony of this court for far as I am concerned), derived from observation of the workings of this law as to its wisdom or efficacy. On the question of tenement and lodging houses in this city and Brooklyn all would admit the humanity and preparety of the legislation of last session. It is said that half a million of the population are huddled together in those tonement houses, and more than twenty-live thousand human beings are crowded into cellars. The act of last session reaches those two evils and prescribes the duty and the mode of ventilating such premises and providing proper means of secape in case of the. Sanitary measures and pre-cautions are also triged by this emotioner. In illustration of what he stated in reference to this act he would refer to a recent occurrence which involved the loss of the lives of a number of human beings in one of those tenement houses in this city. In reference to the use of concealed weapons, Judge Russel reviewed the practice of carrying and using deady weapons at considerable length, and concluded by saying.—Whatever the future may have in store in reference to this matter, there scales no ground of complaint if those who wear deadly weapons about their porsons are admented in season by the course of our courts and judge of the liability attaching to their use. On the subject of register and concluded by saying in the fame, and the received himself.—Long the court of the store, and direction, and shows the fame of the liability attaching to their use. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MONDAY, Jan. 6-6 P. M. Monday, Jan. 6—6 P. M.

The gold market was strong and excited all day, and the extreme range was from 134% to 135%, with the clesing transactions prior to the adjournment of the board at 135%, following which sales were made at 125%, the latest quotation being 135% a 135%. There was a very active borrowing demand for coin, and, netwithstanding the large floating supply, leans were made without interest and at 1-64 per cent per diem in favor off the lender, after rates varying from one to six per cent had been paid for carrying. The volume of busiof the lender, after rates varying from one to aix percent had been paid for carrying. The volume of business was unusually large, and the gross clearings amounted to $83,800,800, the gold balances to $5,223,645 and the currency balances to $5,009,178. The imports of specie at the port last week aggregated $189,550. The total amount of gold certificates issued by the Subtreasury up to Saturday evening is $242,733,660, of which $203,578,000 have been redeemed, leaving $34,185,660 soutstanding. There was apparently no special cause for the advance, but the matural reaction from extreme depression was simulated by purchases to cever "short" contracts, and the market is still largely oversoid, while, in view of the financial situation and the prospects of the country, the gremium is tion and the prospects of the country, the premium is by no means high.

although a break in Rock Island, which carried it tem-porarily below 90, caused an unsettled feeling to prevail porarily below 90, caused an unsettled feeling to prevail about noon, but this was soon succeeded by a return of confidence and a complete recovery of grices. The decline in question was caused by a report, which proved true, that an injunction had been issued by Judge Cardozo, of the Supreme Court, on the application of Messrs. Fisk & Belden, stock brokers, restraining the directors of the Chicago and Rock Island Railway Company from allowing any portion of the $4,900,000 of the new stock to be transferred on the books and from parting with be transferred on the books and from parting with any of the proceeds of the sale of the new stock. The defendants are to show cause on the 13th inst. why the injunction should not be continued until judgment is rendered in the action. The discreditable stock-jobbing manner in which the stock referred to was issued calls for investigation on the part of the stockholders and a full explanation from the directors, and it is to be hoped that the latter, and Mr. David Dows and Mr. Tracy in particular, will not shrink from their duty in this particular. The following is the text of the injune tion referred to:-

this particular. The following is the text of the injunction referred to:—

Supreme Court.—James Fisk, Jr., William Belden and William B. Bradford vs. the Chicago, Rock island and Pacific Railroad Company, John F. Tracy, Charles W. Durant, Thomas F. Sturges, David Dows, David Crawford, Jr., Thomas C. Durant, Francis H. Tows, Oliver Charlick, Robert A. Forsyth, Ebenezer Cook, and N. B. Curtis and Clark Durant. It appearing to my satisfaction by the affidavits of William Belden and James Fisk, Jr., that sufficient grounds for an injunction exist, I do bereby order that the defendants above named and each of them refrain from allowing a transier upon the books of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company of any shares or instruments purporting to be certificates of shares in the capital stock of said company, saued in excess of the ninety-two thousand shares of the said stock created at the organization of the said company, and from parting to represent new stock of the said company in excess of the intery-two thousand shares originally issued, and from paying out any money of the said company for or on account of the said new issue of a cock until the decision of the motion to continue the figuration.

And let the defendants show cause at a special term of this court to be held at chambers in the City Hail, in the city of New York, on Menday, the 13th of January, 1888, why this injunction should not be continued until judgment is rendered in this action.

ALBERT CARDOZO, J. S. C. New York, Jan. 6, 1868,

The bull element is decidedly in the ascendant on the Stock Exchange and the tendency of prices is upward. Speculation for a rise is stimulated by the abundance of Stock Exchange and the tendency of prices is upward. Speculation for a rise is stimulated by the abundance of money and the prospect of still greater ease, and while all the principal stock houses and leading pro-fessional operators are on the bull side of the market the bears are comparatively few and inactive. The source of the strength of the market for railway shares is to be found in the large earnings of the railways during the past year, the average having been equal to more than a hundred and seventy dellars per mile greater than in 1803, a convincing proof that the stagnation which pravailed in trade did not extend to them. Now that it is accepted as almost certain that there will be no further contraction of the currency, confidence in values of all kinds is growing, and the sooner the Senate takes conclusive action upon this subject by passing the House anti-con-traction bill the better for the country at large. The supply of capital offering on call is abundant at six and seven per cent, with most of the transactions at the lower rate, while first class commercial paper, of which the supply is limited, passes at 7 a 8 per cent.

The action of the Board of Brokers on Satur-day respecting Messrs. Lockwood & Co., to which we referred yesterday, has excited con-siderable comment in the street, and the proceeding of the board is regarded as not only extremely arbitrary, but illegal. As we explained, Mr. Williston B. Lockwood, a member of the on the 1st of the present month, and the board have declared the seats of Mr. Le Grand Lockwood and Mr. Van Buskirk (orfeited in consequence, on the ground that the firm in taking a member of the open board into partnership violated the sixtleth rule of the association, which reads as follows:- "Any member of this board uniting with any other organization where stocks, bonds, &c., are dealt in, or who shall visit the rooms where such deal-ing are had, shall cease to be a member of this board." Herein, it will be observed, nothing whatever is said against a member of the board entering into partnership with a member of any other organization, yet the board has proceeded just as if there had been and expelled a firm that reflected credit upon the association. Probably if Messra Lockwood & Co, valued their connection with the regular board they would legally resist the action of the board; but as it is the board itself will be the only loser by the course it has pursued, which savers too much of old fogyism and injustice either to command respect or to moure ultimate success.
